OPEN HEARTS-OPEN MINDS-OPEN DOORS

From the Desk of Pastor Rick

Frank Laubach was a missionary who truly did change the world. He worked among the Muslims in the Philippines and is most famous for originating the learn to read movement called "Each One Teach One." It is estimated that over 60 million people have learned to read in their own language because of this movement. He later founded Laubach Literacy that still helps 150,000 people in America learn to read each year.

Even though I was a literacy volunteer for many years and I truly appreciate his accomplishments in that area, I learned about Frank Laubach from a spiritual director who recommended a book he wrote about praying constantly. Laubach is considered a modern-day mystic because he spent his life in an attitude of constant prayer. He credits all of his accomplishments to God.

I have heard many of you say that you wished, or hoped or even prayed that our church would grow again. I also know that many of you actively invite others to church and I know that the people you ask are blessed because of the invitation whether they come or not. I believe that if we all strive to follow Frank Laubach's model and each of us ask someone to come to worship and then pray for them, the people we ask will be blessed and so will our community.

See you Sunday,

Pastor Rick

From your editor

It's a small, small world. We just live in it.

I was in Germany at the end of a 2 week vacation. It was a small town of about 1500. I was in an outdoor restaurant/beer garden with maybe 15-20 other diners.

I struggled a little bit ordering my German meal when a man at the table next to me turned and let me know that if I could finish that order, I'd be speaking Bavarian by the end.

I laughed and he asked where we were from. Colorado.

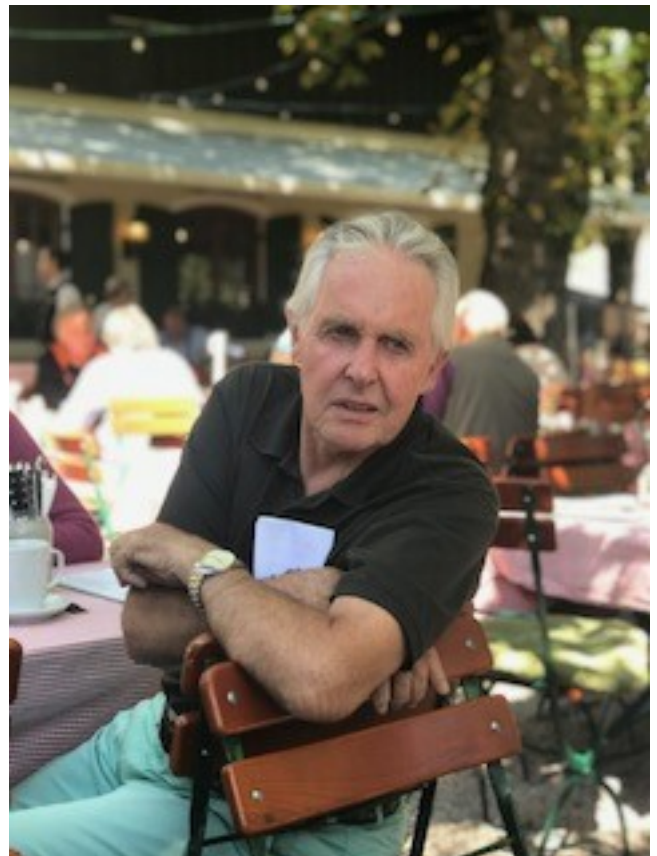

"Oh he says, you might know a little town called "Longmont".

Yes, this man in this tiny town at this little restaurant had lived in Longmont in 1967-68 when Longmont itself was a tiny town of 18,000.

I think sometimes God likes to remind us that we're all in this together! OR—maybe we all carry a little bit of Longmont with us?

Does anyone know this man?

Terri

PRAYER

changes things

Continued prayers for Earl Nelson that he continue to recover from cancer.

Prayers for Jan Goon that she fully heal from cancer.

Prayers for Dick Milner who has cancer.

Prayers for a long and happy life together for Austin Johnson and his fiancé Kelsey

Thank You!!

Thank you to Andy Ernst for filling in for Pastor Rick September 2! He always has insights!

Thank you to those who keep us eating during fellowship time!

Thank you in advance for all the help at the rummage sale!

And to those keeping up with the gardens. They just get more beautiful during this change in seasons!

Thank you to our pianists!! Thought you might want to see a giant pipe organ.

(You were warned about vacation photos!!)

Grocery Coupons

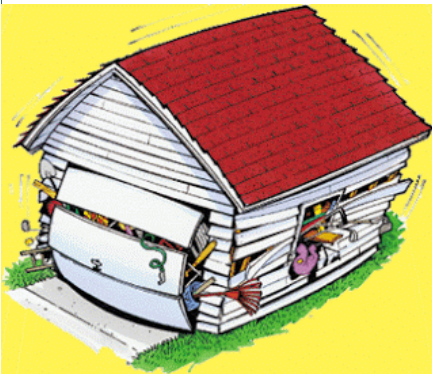

Barbara Burneson continues to sell grocery coupons, or gift cards. You purchase a card for a specific amount and receive it to buy your groceries, gas, or even prescriptions. The store charges us a percentage less than their actual value. So for instance, Barbara buys a card for $93, she sells it to me for $100 and I can buy $100 worth of groceries. The church keeps the $7 difference. She has Safeway, King Soopers, and Natural Grocer cards at this time. See Barbara to make your purchase.

Upcoming Events

October 10th will be our

HOB0 Dinner!!!

The sign up sheets will be in fellowship hall soon. If you can't be there, but would still like to help, think about baking a cake, but not frosting it. Put it in the freezer and we'll get it frosted for Rummage Sale!

September 6—preparing for the Rummage Sale

September 7-8 We'll be selling good, gently used items

Advent Small Group

We will have a small group meeting during the Advent Season. Pastor Rick is looking into materials. Meeting time will be Sunday evenings.

Stay Tuned!

Guest Speakers

There are a few Sundays this year with a substitute for Pastor Rick. One just passed, but these are the other 2.
